Notice of Special Election

STATE OF MISSOURI, ss. County of Bollinger, ss.

Adjourned May term, 1912.

In the County court of said county, on the 3d day of June, 1912, the following, among other proceedings, were had, viz:

In the matter of the petition of F. M. Wells, C. M. Witmer, et al, for submission of Article 6, Chapter 102, of the Revised Statutes of Missouri for year 1909, to a vote of the people for their adoption.

Now come the said F. M. Wells, C. M. Witmer, et al, and respectfully represent that they are more than fifty qualified voters who are resident taxpayers of the proposed special road district hereinafter described; that they desire and propose to form a special road district comprising the following described territory, not exceeding eight miles square, in Bollinger county, Missouri, as follows, to-wit:

Beginning on the line dividing the counties of Bollinger and Cape Girardeau at the southeast corner of section six, township thirty, north, of range eleven, east; thence north on said county line to the northeast corner of section thirty, township thirty-one, north, of range eleven, east; thence west to the northwest corner of section thirty-one, township thirty-one, north, of range eleven, east; thence south on the range line between ranges nine, 9, and ten, 10, to the southwest corner of section six, township thirty, north, of range eleven, east; thence east on the section line to the southeast corner of section one, township thirty, north, of range ten, east; thence south on the range line to the southwest corner of section six, township thirty, north, of range eleven, east; thence east on the section line to the place of beginning, and containing fifteen sections.

And said petitioners further represent to the court that there is located within said special road district two villages each containing less than one hundred thousand inhabitants, to-wit: the village of Lutesville containing less than one thousand inhabitants, and the village of Marble Hill containing less than six hundred inhabitants; that said county of Bollinger is not under township organization, and does not contain fifty thousand inhabitants, and pray the court to submit Article 6, Chapter 102, of the Revised Statutes of Missouri for the year 1909, entitled "Special Road Districts," to a vote of the people of said proposed special road district, for their adoption.

And the court, after having heard the public reading of said petition, the evidence in relation thereto and being sufficiently advised of and concerning the premises, finds that said petitioners are more than fifty qualified voters who are resident taxpayers of the said proposed special road district; that there is located in said proposed special road district two villages each containing less than one hundred thousand inhabitants, to-wit: the village of Lutesville containing less than one thousand inhabitants and the village of Marble Hill containing less than six hundred inhabitants; that said county of Bollinger is not under township organization, and does not contain fifty thousand inhabitants.

It is therefore ordered by the court that Article 6, Chapter 102, of the Revised Statutes of Missouri, 1909, entitled "Special Road Districts" be submitted to a vote of the people of said proposed special road district for their adoption, at a Special Election for that purpose, to be held at all the voting precincts within said proposed special road district, to-wit: at the precinct of Lutesville and the precinct of Marble Hill, on Saturday, the 22nd day of June, 1912.

And it is further ordered by the court that notice of said Special Election be given by publication in THE MARBLE HILL PRESS and Lutesville Banner, two weekly newspapers published in Bollinger county, for two consecutive weeks, the last insertion to be within five days next before the 22nd day of June, 1912.

CLERK'S CERTIFICATE

STATE OF MISSOURI, ss. I, William Abernathy, clerk of the County court in and for said county, hereby certify the above and foregoing to be a true copy of the proceedings of our said County court, on the day and year above written, as the same appears of record in my office.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court at office in Marble Hill, Missouri, this 5th day of June, A. D., 1912.

WM. ABERNATHY, Clerk of the County Court.

Notice of Special Election

STATE OF MISSOURI, ss. County of Bollinger, ss.

Adjourned May Term, 1912.

In the County court of said county, on the 3rd day of June, 1912, the following, among other proceedings, were had, viz:

In the matter of the petition of D. J. Mungle, S. P. Presnell et al, for submission of Article six (6), Chapter 102 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri, for the year 1909, to a vote of the people for their adoption.

Now come the said D. J. Mungle, S. P. Presnell et al, and respectfully represent that they are more than fifty qualified voters who are resident taxpayers of the proposed special road district hereinafter described; that they desire and propose to form a special road district comprising the following described territory, not exceeding eight miles square, in Bollinger county, Missouri, as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at the northeast corner of lot two (2), section five (5), township thirtythree (33), north of range ten (10), east; thence west with the north boundary of lot two (2), of section five (5) and six (6), two miles to the range line; thence continue west with or near the north boundary of survey No. 781 across section one, and along the north boundary of lot two (2), of sections two (2), three (3), four (4), five (5) and six (6), of township thirty-three, north of range nine, east, six miles to the range line between ranges eight and nine; thence south with said range line eight miles, more or less, to the southwest corner of section seven, township thirty-two, north of range nine, east; thence east with the section line eight miles, more or less, to the southeast corner of section eight, township thirty-two, north of range ten, east; thence north with the section line eight miles, more or less, to the place of beginning.

And said petitioners further represent to the court that there is located within said special road district a village containing less than one hundred thousand inhabitants; that the said county of Bollinger is not under township organization, and does not contain fifty thousand inhabitants, and pray the court to submit Article 6, Chapter 102, of the Revised Statutes of Missouri for the year 1909, entitled "Special Road Districts" to a vote of the people of said proposed special road district, for their adoption.

And the court, after having heard the public reading of said petition, the evidence in relation thereto and being sufficiently advised of and concerning the premises, finds that said petitioners are more than fifty qualified voters who are resident taxpayers of the said proposed special road district; that there is located in said proposed special road district a village, to-wit: the village of Patton, containing less than one hundred thousand inhabitants; that said county of Bollinger is not under township organization, and does not contain fifty thousand inhabitants.

It is therefore ordered by the court that Article 6, Chapter 102, of the Revised Statutes of Missouri, 1909, entitled "Special Road Districts" be submitted to a vote of the people of said proposed special road district for their adoption, at a Special Election for that purpose, to be held at all the voting precincts within said proposed special road district, to-wit: at the precinct of Patton and the precinct of Mungle, on Saturday, the 22nd day of June, 1912.

And it is further ordered by the court that notice of said Special Election be given by publication in THE MARBLE HILL PRESS and Lutesville Banner, two weekly newspapers published in Bollinger county, for two consecutive weeks, the last insertion to be within five days next before the 22nd day of June, 1912.
